CARE, MAINTENANCE AND PRODUCT INFORMATION GUIDE

(Forming part of and incorporated into the Warranty)

Below are our recommended care instructions for your etherium® By E-Stone product.

1) Everyday Cleaning

Simply wipe with a damp cloth using a mild detergent. Do not use scourers, steel wool products, abrasive and/or lemon cleaners.

2) Stain Resistance

Your product is stain-resistant (not stain-proof) to most common household food and liquid products; however, spillages such as wines and acidic substances (e.g. vinegar) should be wiped clean as soon as possible, especially on light colors. It is not recommended to leave food and liquid spills overnight. Chemicals such as solvents, acetone, acid or alkaline products can cause damage.

3) Scratch Resistance

Your product is scratch-resistant (not scratch-proof), but as with any high-shine surface, care should be taken. We recommend use of a chopping board.

4) Heat Resistance

Your product is heat-resistant and hot pans can be placed directly onto the surface for a short period of time; however, extreme heat will cause damage. We recommend use of a hot pad or trivet. Exposure to a naked flame will also cause damage and care should be exercised if spillage should occur with hot fat or oils, which should be removed as soon as possible.

CARE AND MAINTENANCE OF etherium® By E-Stone PERLA PRODUCTS: PERLA DI SABBIA AND PERLA BIANCA, SPECIFICALLY

This unique product combines etherium® By E-Stone technology with a mix of beautiful and natural mother-of-pearl shell. Shell color and dispersal can vary between individual sheets. Because shell is formed from calcium carbonate and is softer than the composite sheet, the embedded areas can be susceptible to staining, abrasion by harder compounds and can react to vinegar, citric and other acids.

Overexposure or abuse of these substances can diminish the surface quality and affect the original purchaser's warranty. As with any boutique solid surface product, we advise that all Perla products be looked after in the same way as other etherium® By E-Stone Collection surfaces. In addition to our 'Care of Product' advice above, any spillage of vinegar or citrus fruit juice on the surface should be immediately wiped off with soapy water and a clean, damp cloth. Do not use lime scale remover, detergents containing citric acid (lemon), calcium cleaners or bleach, as these products will dissolve the shells.

CARE AND MAINTENANCE OF etherium® By E-Stone GLASS: RECYCLED RANGE, SPECIFICALLY

We are fully committed to increasing our range of environmentally friendly materials and have developed etherium® By E-Stone Glass specifically for this purpose. Using a high percentage of post-consumer recycled glass, this range can be slightly more susceptible to marking and some extra care should be taken. Dropping heavy objects directly onto the surface or placing them down hard should be avoided in particular. Please note that glass that may look cracked or shattered is part of the product's unique appearance and that this does not compromise the integrity of the surface.

Description

The etherium® By E-Stone Collection range of products is engineered from quarried natural materials and includes granite, stone, marble, quartz and mother-of-pearl shell, as well as glass, which are all compressed into graduated-size pieces and mixed with specially formulated UV-stable polymers. Each slab is individually formed on a reinforced mat, fired, and then polished to form a deep, lustrous shine. The etherium® By E-Stone Collection may contain fine surface swirls/buffer marks as a result of the polishing process. (These may only be visible under certain light.) The finished surface is heat, scratch, and stain-resistant.

Color Specification

Because the etherium® By E-Stone Collection range is made up almost totally of natural material, some variation in stone/glass color and particle size is to be expected. This is quite normal and is not considered a product fault or defect. Foreign-colored stones may also feature in our products primarily due to the different mineral makeup of rock deposits, all of which have their own unique coloration and texture. For example, it is not an unusual occurrence to find a quartz-based particle (white inclusion) in a predominantly black (Nero Stella) slab. Nor is it unusual to find darker-colored stones (brown/black) in a lighter-colored slab (white/cream).

Samples

We have no control over the inherent features of either stone (granite, quartzite) or glass. Displays and samples are provided as an indication only, batch variations will occur. It is impossible to continually provide current samples of the variations in materials.
